

Creative ways to express patriotism

METRO NEWS

Saturday, 30 Sep 2017

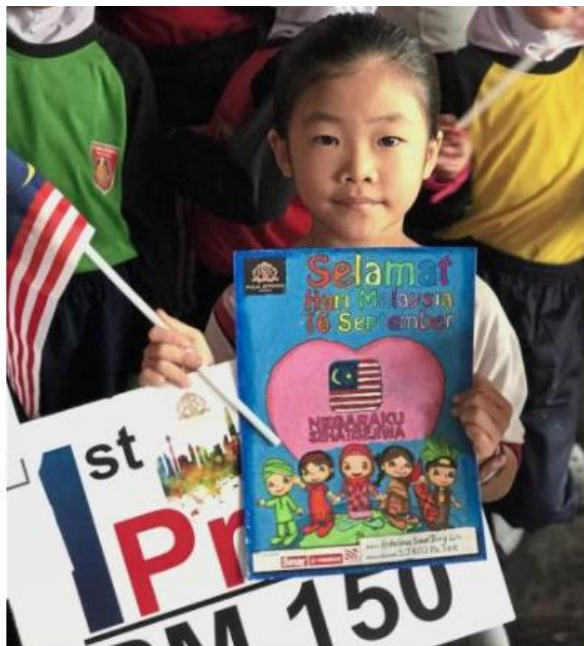

The pupils posing for a group photo at Pulai Springs Resort in Johor Baru.

JOHOR BARU: Pulai Springs Resort organised a fun-filled programme for 30 Year One pupils with the aim to promote the spirit of patriotism.

The event, held in conjunction with Malaysia Day, saw pupils from SK Taman Universiti 4, SJK(T) Kangkar Pulai and SJK(C) Pu Sze taking part in a colouring contest as well as decorating a large-sized cake with the guidance of a pastry chef.

The children were given an hour to complete the Malaysian Day team colouring sheet at the event held at the resort's Ramayana Lounge.

Edeline Saw Jing Lin from SJK (C) Pu Sze won first place in the colouring contest.

Pulai Springs Resort general manager Sunny Soo said the activity was aimed at enhancing the spirit of unity and patriotism among the younger generation

“This is our third year organising a Malaysia Day programme with the children and we hope the colouring contest will become a platform for the children to express their support towards this memorable day.

Soo said the event was also the resort's corporate social responsibility (CSR) programme to increase awareness on unity as Malaysians.

Each pupil received a goodie bag containing a mini Jalur Gemilang, snacks, a lunch box sponsored by Schwan-Stabilo and story books sponsored by Pelangi Publishing Group.

Hani Balqis Mohd Huzaly from SK Taman Universiti 4, who won second place in the colouring contest.

Three winners for the colouring contest received cash prizes, Legoland Malaysia tickets sponsored by Sinar Harian Johor, stationery set sponsored by Schwan-Stabilo, a certificate and a hamper each.

The rest of the pupils received consolation prizes comprising a Legoland ticket, stationery items and a certificate.

A.Harini from SJK (T) Kangkar Pulai won third place in the colouring contest.