

Wednesday, 30 December 2015

Resort hosts party to celebrate Christmas with underprivileged kids

BY NORBAITI PHAHARORADZI

FACEBOOK

TWITTER

GOOGLE+

LINKEDIN

Pulai Springs Resort general manager Sunny Soo (centre) giving away ang pow and vouchers to one of the children during the high-tea.

Thousands of career prospects await you

Find it at myStarJob.com

ADVERTISEMENT

THE STAR ONLINE

The Daily Alert

Stay updated daily with our FREE email alerts

By clicking on the Subscribe button, it is deemed that you consent to our terms.

View Sample

Latest News

Section 14 residents hand over petition to object to proposed link in PJ

Growing commercial set-up in suburb

Residents bent on stopping project

Giving the elderly a better life

i-City welcomes Pokemon players

---

Popular Now in Metro

One sen for your thoughts

Growing commercial set-up in suburb

Giving the elderly a better life

Section 14 residents hand over petition to object to proposed link in PJ

i-City welcomes Pokemon players

by the resort during the high-tea session.

The children from the home, mostly orphans aged between three and 16 years, were accompanied by the home's assistant manager Justin Lai and two other caretakers.

"We wanted to remember the less fortunate in this season of giving and sharing," said the resort's general manager Sunny Soo.

The children were treated to a sumptuous buffet prepared by the resort's executive chef Ian Lim and his team.

During the high-tea, Santa Clause and Santarina also made appearances and gave away candy.

Each of them received a goodie bag containing books sponsored by Pelangi Publishing Group Bhd and another goodie bag containing Christmas candy cane, stationery and a RM50 AEON Big gift card sponsored by a resident living in Cinta Ayu Apartment in Pulai Springs Resort, as well as money packets from the resort.

They also took part in games planned by the resort's Sports and Recreation team to win attractive prizes.

JOHOR BARU: Pulai Springs Resort hosted 32 underprivileged children from the Johor Calvary Welfare Home here to mark the season of giving and sharing.

Ruth Rasai, seven, said she was overwhelmed with the treats and goodies they received to mark Christmas.

Her brother, Aron Rasai, five, who wanted toys this Christmas, said that he enjoyed the games planned

Growing commercial set-up in suburb

Giving the elderly a better life

Section 14 residents hand over petition to object to proposed link in PJ

i-City welcomes Pokemon players

Residents bent on stopping project

Entrance fee to help maintain KL forest

Plan to take over MCA halls is 'like stealing'

Houseowners unhappy over City Hall's withdrawal of incentive for 2016

New life for Subang Jaya mall

Sudden mall closure shocks traders and outlet operators

---

Trending in Culture

Review: Rebel Of The Sands

The mayor who transformed Bandung into a livable and lovable city

Performing arts programme changes lives of at-risk kids

Review: Thatcher Stole My Trousers

The artist who painted this is